

JUNIORS

February 29 - March 2

Ariel Y. Babikian is a child of God graced with his wife Kohar of 21 years and four children Justin (18) Christin and Andrea (15) and Joshua (9). Ariel is an Architect specializing in custom homes and Church design and Masterplanning. In 1996 Ariel received a distinct call to ministry from God to serve the Armenian people. Ariel received his Masters degree from APU Haggard School of Theology after which he was ordained in the Church of the Nazarene where he currently serves as an Associate Pastor of the Armenian Church in Pasadena. His greatest joy is being with his family and his extended family at Church usually around food and almost always laughing.

HIGH SCHOOL

February 1-3

Pastor Stephen Muncherian recieved his Master of Divinity (Pastoral Emphasis) in 1986 from Western Conservative Baptist Seminary, Portland, Oregon. He received his Bachelor of Arts (Biblical Studies) in 1982 from Biola University, La Mirada, California. In 1988 he was ordained by the Armenian Evangelical Union of North America (AEUNA). Since January 2003 he has been the pastor of the Creekside Evangelical Free Church of Merced, California.

Pastor Steve has worked closely over the years with the AEUNA, the AMAA, and Camp Arev, where he served in many leadership roles including Assistant Pastor of UACC, Pastor of CACC, and Executive Director at Camp AREV (1992-1994).

Pastor Steve and his wife Karen have four children.

Pastor Jack Hakimian currently serves as Associate Pastor overseeing young adults and youth ministry at Christian Outreach for Armenians Church (Glendale, California). He is graduating this fall of 2007 from Fuller Seminary with a Masters in Cross-Cultural Studies. He speaks as a usual guest speaker at conferences, universities and churches. He has a beautiful wife by the name of Jhael and four wonderful sons named: Jacob(8), Jeremiah(6), Josiah(4) and Joel (1). They live in Pasadena, CA, and have come to really appreciate the cultural diversity of the city. His vision is to see Armenians all over the world come to know Christ and find nourishment in local evangelical churches. He believes that the new generation of "Young Armenians" are going to birth this new spiritual revolution.

JUNIOR HIGH

February 15 - 17

Josh Rothell serves as the Youth Pastor of High School and Junior High ministries at Pacific Christian Center in Manhattan Beach, California. Both he and his lovely wife, Dawnielle, share a passion to see youth transformed by the Spirit of God and thrive in God's calling for their life. Josh has had the privilege of ministering to youth, to post-college groups, to inner-city children, and to Christians in Rwanda. He also had the opportunity to travel the continental United States with John Bevere and assist in the ministry of Messenger International for 5 years. He then attended Biola University where he worked in the Chaplain's office, led chapels, and served on the chapel board. Josh and Dawnielle love the church and are passionate to see youth THRIVE for Christ.

COLLEGE

January 11-13